

Paliani Heads Camino Student Body in Fall

Heading associated student officers at El Camino College for the fall semester will be Joe Paliani, newly-elected Associated Student President.

Paliani will chair the fall student council, directing the activities of ECC's student Government program.

Assisting the new student executive officer will be Jerry Goddard, Redondo Beach, who was re-elected as vice-president.

ENGLISH MAJOR

Paliani, an English major, has held a number of other offices this year at ECC. He has been commissioner of public relations and commissioner of athletics on student council, as well as president of the Literary Round Table.

A transfer from L.A. Trade Technical JC, Paliani was active in student government for three semesters at Trade Tech, and twice won the President's Award, as most useful member of student council.

Goddard is a pre-dentistry major, and a graduate of Redondo Beach Union High School. Before taking over as AS vice-president last semester, he held the post of freshman justice on ECC's student court.

OTHERS ELECTED

Also recently elected were Earlita Fardy, Associated Women Students president, and Jim Dean, Associated Men Students president.

Miss Pardy, a life science major, is a Gadena resident and an alumnus of Fort Dodge Senior High School in Iowa.

Dean, an Inglewood resident, is majoring in liberal arts. He is an Inglewood High grad, and is secretary of Avionics Club at ECC.

ACTIVITIES

Karen Keppler of Gadena is the newly-elected commissioner of activities, and will preside over the Inter-Club Council.

Miss Keppler is an English major and a graduate of Bishop Montgomery High School.

Newly chosen commissioner of assemblies is Russ Hetherington of Hermosa Beach. He is a pre-law major and an alumnus of Mira Costa High School.

Paul Ingelman, Inglewood, will be ECC's commissioner of athletics for next semester. A math major, he was graduated from Inglewood High, where he was a member of Sentinel's Bay League champion basketball team in '61.

GRID GUARD

Ingelman was a starting guard on ECC's cage squad this season.

Serving as commissioner of public relations will be Bill Diamond of Torrance. A journalism major, he attended Hamilton High School and Los Angeles State College before coming to ECC.

Mike Harris will assume duties as commissioner of rallies. A history major, he is a Hawthorne resident and a graduate of Hawthorne High School.

Joan Stieber is the newly-elected commissioner of finance. She is a bio-chemistry major and a Gadena resident.

An alumna of St. Mary's

HONOR STUDENT

Academy, Miss Stieber is a member of Alpha Gamma Sigma, ECC academic honor society, and Newman Club. Serving as sophomore class president will be Bob Benson of Hawthorne, a political science major and an alumnus of Leuzinger High School.

Benson is a former AMS vice president and Chess Club president at El Camino. Other newly-elected officers are Paula Blue, Gardena, AWS vice-president; Jeri Long, Inglewood, AWS secretary; Carol Johnson, Los Angeles, AWS treasurer; Sharon Powers, Torrance, sophomore class treasurer, and Tom Anderson, Hawthorne, AWS treasurer.

LARGEST USER

The largest single use of nickel is in stainless steels. In 1961, about 170,000,000 pounds, or 34 per cent of the free world's total consumption of nickel, went into these versatile alloys.
